DETAILED ACTION

1. Amendments filed on 10/29/2008 is acknowledged. Claims 1-7 are amended.
Claim 9 is new. Currently claims 1-9 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lee (USP 6,514,769).
4. Regarding claim 1-5, Lee teaches an assay device (“a sample analysis tool”) comprising: test strip 105a, (“a substrate” “strip shaped”); a test zone 112a, a control zone 113 and a determinant pad 300 (“at least one reagent pad” “two or more of the at least one reagent pad are arranged in series along a longitudinal direction of the strip shaped substrate”) (Fig. 1-2) provided on the test strip substrate, wherein at least one absorbent pad 123A is provided on the exposed region of the test strip 105a (Fig. 1-2) (“balance pad” is sufficiently broad to read on any pad; “holding portion” is sufficiently broad to read on any portion capable of being held). The absorbent pad is capable of adjusting the at least one of weight balance and friction balance of the sample analysis tool. The determinant pad 300 is provided on a first end portion of the substrate, and the absorbent pad 123A is provided on a second end portion of the test strip opposite to the first end portion at a distance from the at least one reagent pad.

Regarding claim 6-8, Lee teaches the determination pad comprises reagents to detect the pH in urine (“a reagent for a urinalysis”) (Col. 8 lines 23-30). The color change is visually analyzed (“analyzed by an analyzer”) (col. 8 lines 14-21).

Regarding claim 9, Lee teaches the determination pad (“reagent pad”) is formed on the opposite side of the test strip from the absorbent pad 123a (“balance pad is formed on a rear surface of the substrate on a front face of which the at least one reagent pad is formed”).

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-9 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
